Thought for the Week:

How can you show peace?

This week's certificate winners for Peace are Sasha and Freddie!

Well done!

Reminders:

World Book Day

As you know, on Thursday 7th March we will be celebrating World Book Day. Children are invited to come to school dressed as their favourite book character. We are also running a story potato competition. Please see the ParentMail for more details about events happening throughout the week.

RWI

Last week, we split into new RWI groups. Some children will be bringing home red book bag books and some will be bringing home green book bag books. I have split the phonics homework below to reflect what children are learning in each group so please ensure your child is doing the homework task for their group. If you aren't sure which group they are in then please ask.

Newsletter

Please note that we now have a weekly newsletter. You should be receiving this via ParentMail each week. This has lots of updates about what has been happening throughout the week as well as a dates list for upcoming events.

Tapestry

You should have received a ParentMail informing you about Tapestry. Please ensure you complete the consent form so that we are able to start posting on there! You should have received a link via email to activate your account. Please check spam/junk folders. If you have not received an email then please let us know.

Home Learning Tasks

Reading

Please read with your child at least 5x over the week.
Record any books they read (from school or home) in their reading diary.

Phonics

Please help your child to practice the sounds they have learnt this week by completing their task below. There are lots of games online that children can also play to practice such as the phase 2 games here

Phonics

Red Group - we have been continuing practicing blending with special friends 'ch' 'th' and 'ng'. Your task this week is to add the sound buttons and bars to the words below and then read the words. The first one has been done for you.

Green Group - in green group, children have been working on red words which are words that we can't read because they have "tricky letters" in them. These words we just have to practice and learn. Your task this week, is to practice reading them in the box below. Once you are confident, you could time yourself and see how quickly you can read all of them!
